

First page heading

The opening page holds the introduction of the quarterly review and nothing else.

Second page heading

The middle page continues with the findings of the regional offices in order.

Third page heading

The closing page lists the conclusions and the date of the next review.